Rarely in the Kanfanar region is rich in cultural and historical monuments. Perhaps the most important archaeological site is the cave of St. Romuald, the site of the remains of Homo sapiens fossilis, a Paleolithic hunter, and remains belonging to the Neanderthals. Among the many forts, it is worth mentioning Karaštak, Škrbuštak, Morozola, Sv. Martin, the garden of St. Jakov and many others, and a special place among prehistoric sites is occupied by the Bronze Age tumulus Maklavun. Although a handful of important historical sites can be found in this area, the central place is occupied by the remains of medieval Dvigrad, which gladly accepts its visitors and returns them to the 17th century. The abundance of local products, delicious cuisine with several high-ranking restaurants and family taverns is one of the most important locations in Istria. Every year more and more tourists choose the Kanfanar area as an ideal place for their vacation and enjoyment.

In a small picturesque place near Kanfanar, we are selling an exceptional, completely renovated old villa of 136 sq.m. with a swimming pool, on the territory of 350 sq.m.. This beautiful indigenous villa conquers at first sight with a combination of tradition - stone and wood and modern design with straight and clean lines.

The entrance to the ground floor will enchant you with its fullness and yet the simplicity of a beautiful airy space that combines a fully equipped kitchen, dining room and living room. Upstairs are the remaining two bedrooms, beautifully decorated with great attention to detail, comfortable, also with private bathrooms. The first floor leads to the outdoor terrace which offers a beautiful view of the surrounding landscape and the sea. In total, the house has 136 m² of living space, and the issue of heating and cooling has been resolved with air conditioning and underfloor heating in all bathrooms. Below the house there is a beautiful auxiliary building of 20 m² with kitchen and dining table with direct views of the pool.
